Subject: - Sanction of ASPIRE Research Mentorship Grant

Dear Researcher,

'ASPIRE Research Mentorship Grant' is an ambitious research funding scheme to identify young research talent in the university departments, colleges and institutions, affiliated to Savitribai Phule Pune University. The aim of providing the seed funding is to inculcate a research culture and to enable them to go forward for major financial assistance from national or international funding agencies.

The research talent is identified through rigorous screening / evaluation process by nationally and internationally renowned experts in the field, from amongst thousands of proposals received.

I am pleased to inform you that your project entitled "A Study of Women Empowerment through Self Help Group of Bank of Maharashtra with special reference to Nashik City". has been provisionally selected for research funding of Rs.200,000.00 in the ASPIRE Research Mentorship Scheme for the year 2019-21.

As a young researcher receiving this grant, we expect you to carry out your proposed research, in the best possible manner and report to us, periodically, about the outcome, utility and impact of your work. Such a progress report is mandatory at the end of every six months, from the date of issue of this letter. The progress made in the first year will be evaluated by an expert panel, for guidance and evaluation. Needless to mention, that the progress during the first year shall form the basis for continuation of the project for the remaining year.

I specifically draw your attention to the rules and guidelines of the ASPIRE scheme, which are available at the following link -

ABOUT ANKAI FORT अंकाई / अणकाई

Ankai is a historic site found in the Satmala Range hills in western India. It is located in Yeola Taluka of Nashik district in the state of Maharashtra. Geographically, it is near Manmad. The Ankai fort and Tankai fort are two different forts on adjacent hills. A common fortification is constructed to secure both. The Ankai fort is located on a hill with perpendicular scarps on all the sides, except for a narrow nose on the eastern side.

History

The Brahmani (Hindu) caves on the fort and the Jain caves at the base of the fort depict that Ankai was constructed around 1000 years ago. The fort was built by Yadava of Devgiri. Mughals led by Shah Jahan's

General Khan Khanan captured this fort in 1635 by bribing the fort commander. In 1665, Thévenot mentions these forts as a stage between the cities of Surat and Aurangabad. Ankai was ultimately captured by the Nizam from the Mughuls. In 1752, the fort came under control of the Maratha empire after the Treaty of Bhalki. Finally, it was captured by the British in 1818.

How to reach

The nearest town is Manmad which is 97 kilometers from Nashik. The base village of the fort is Ankai which is 10 kilometers from Manmad. There are three routes to reach Ankai from Nashik. The shortest and safest is via Manmad, the other two are via Vinchur-Lasalgaon-Patoda (85 km) and via Yeola (108 km). The Ankai railway station is quite close to the village. Local passenger trains passing on the Manmad-Nizamabad route stop at the railway station. The trekking path starts from the hillock north of the Ankai village. The route is free from obstruction and is safe and wide with regular steps to the fort. It takes about half an hour to reach the entrance gate of the fort. It takes about 3 hours to see both the forts. It is advisable to first visit the Ankai fort in the early hours of the morning and complete the Tankai fort before noon.

Places to see

There are a lot of places to be seen around the fort, including:

The Jain caves located at the foot hills of the fort, spanning two stories. On the lower story there are two caves, neither of which have idols. On the upper story, there are five caves which feature Mahavir idols in good condition. They are secured by lock and key at night to avoid vandalism. There are carvings of Yaksha, Indrani, lotus and Lord Mahavir in the main cave.

The Main Gate is located south of the hill, featuring well preserved woodwork.

The Manmad Gate is on the Northern side of the col facing Manmad city.

The Brahmani (Hindu) Caves are near the entrance gate to the upper plateau of Ankai fort. They are in ruins, but the idols of Jai and Vijay carved out of rock and the Shivinga can still be seen.

The Palace and Kashi Pond On the western edge of the plateau is a large palace in a dilapidated condition. Only the walls of the palace remain. Among the rock cut cisterns on the way to the palace is the Kashi pond, with a holy Tulsi pot engraved in rock placed in the center of the pond.

. We took photographs of many flowering plants for herbaria. Then we enjoy lunch and start return journey and reached in the Jain ashram where we gathered together enjoy tea and given vote of thanks to Dr. Shimpi for accepting the invitation and participation in a excursion tour and guided us too much about the biodiversity of Ankai as a resource person. At 4.00pm we come back to college.
